Sooji Halwa is offered as prasad along with a thali of all the cooked foods.

Food is served after Aarthi which is usually around 12.15pm.

Food is usually served by volunteers.

Two lines are formed when there are more than 100 people.

use of the Kitchen:

The kitchen is equipped with sufficient cooking ranges and slow cookers.

There are serving trays and spoons.

The sponsors have the use of the kitchen from 8am onwards.

The sponsors are responsible for leaving the kitchen clean.

The sponsors may hire Billy for cleaning purposes.

Things to remember:

Please switch 'ON' the hot water tank (a tiny black switch), and 'OFF' before you leave.

Please switch 'ON' the Exhaust fan on the wall (near the cooking range), OFF' before you leave.

Please dispose all garbage in the WM Bin provided at the end of the Car Park.

Please see that all cooking ranges and the slow cookers are switched 'OFF".

The sponsors will have to contact the priest about opening the door at 8am.

Please don't leave any grocery behind. (same with the fridge and the freezer).

Please leave all used towels in a bag on the countertop.
